ADRIATIC SEA

ADRIATIC

50 shades of blue

The Adriatic sea is a God given summer pool with more than 1000 islands located along the Croatian coast. Origins of the name ADRIATIC are linked to Etruscan settlement of Adria, which derives its name from Illyrian "ADUR" meaning "WATER". The temperature is warm enough to stay in for hours, and cool enough to get refreshed from the midday sun. The surface water temperature ranges from 25 C (80 F) in summer to 12 C (54 F) in winter. The Adriatic sea presents crystal clear 50 shades for blue, from green turquoise to deep blue waters. Imagine waking up on Your private yacht, having breakfast on the deck, and jumping in the turquoise waters. Imagine changing backdrops of the amazing nature changing while You slide across the Sea. Everything on the Adriatic sea is cozy and intimate like your holiday escape should be.

FAVOURITE PLACE ON THE ADRIATIC COAST

When the weather allows, I'm always happy and excited to sail to the remote island of Susac. Off of the navigation routes, it's an oasis surrounded by the endless open sea that makes you feel completely secluded from the rest of the world. The only inhabitants of the island are the lighthouse keeper who is good friend of mine and Shepard with his flock of sheep.

FAVOURITE PLACE ON THE ADRIATIC COAST

Island of Biševo. It's a small island with beautiful beaches and famous Blue Cave. Most of the tourists visit Biševo because of the cave but not so many of them are familiar with other caves, the stunning stone library, the oldest church on the Adriatic coast and the strongest red wine in the World. Nature, clean sea, friends, fresh food, best wine, millions of stars ... all together Biševo paradise.

FAVOURITE PLACE ON THE ADRIATIC COAST

One of my favorite places to sail is to Vela Luka on the beautiful island of Korčula, which is not only my hometown but a peaceful and charming town surrounded by crystal clear waters.

When it comes to creating unforgettable memories with people that matter to You the most, no hotel or villa comes close to a holiday on board Vulpino.
