

Know More About Us

As a result of love for the sea and sailing was the birth of our company. From 2014, the goal of our company, is to lift off the exciting sailing trip to a unique experience, accessible to the whole world. The vision of the founders, is to embrace within the company both experienced and demanding sailors and people who want to get in touch with the magical world of sailing and cruising with a sailboat.

About Our Base

The port of Avdira, one of the oldest ports in the North Aegean, was chosen as the basis of our activities. The port provides easy access to islands and coasts of the North Aegean.

The base of our company is the northernmost naval base for renting sailboats in Greece and the south-easternmost in Europe, before the Asian continent.

Advantages of ^{o o o o} Our Company:

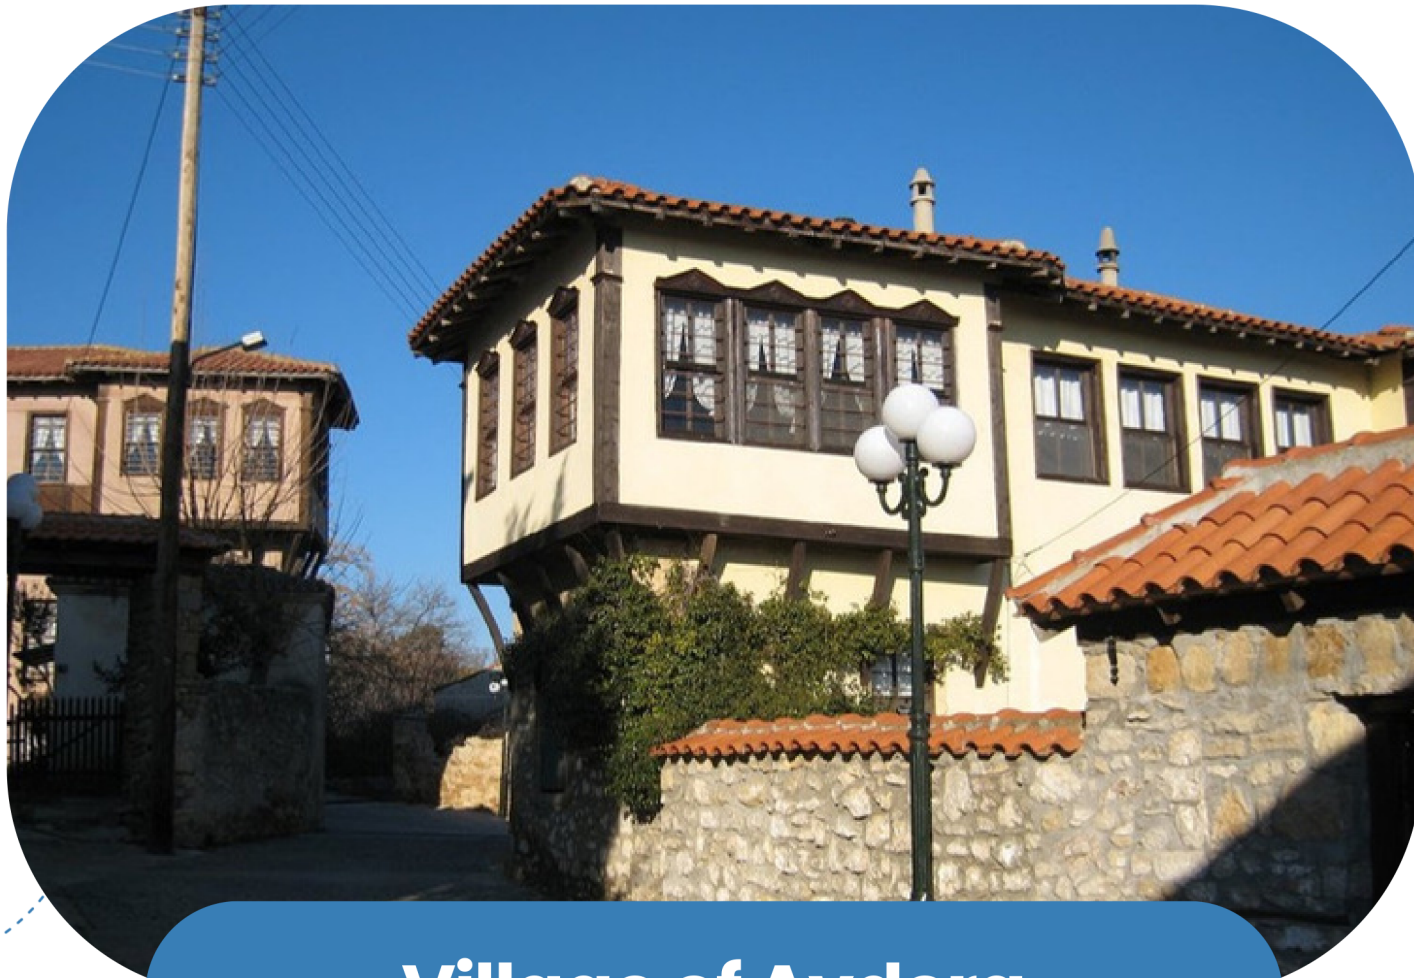

- The base is just 15km from Egnatia Odos and 50km from Kavala(KAV) airport
- Possibility to load and unload your items on the boat right in front of the boat which you will travel
- Free guarded parking for your vehicle
- Free electricity and water supply
- Transportation provided by us, from/to airports
- Adjustment of the booking according to your flights
- Base network in Kavala and Limenas of Thassos

o o o o

Avdera, Greece

o o o o

Village of Avdera

Port of Avdera

o o o o

○ ○ ○ ○

-

○ ○ ○ ○

-

Destinations

Thassos – 15NM

An island of blues and greens.

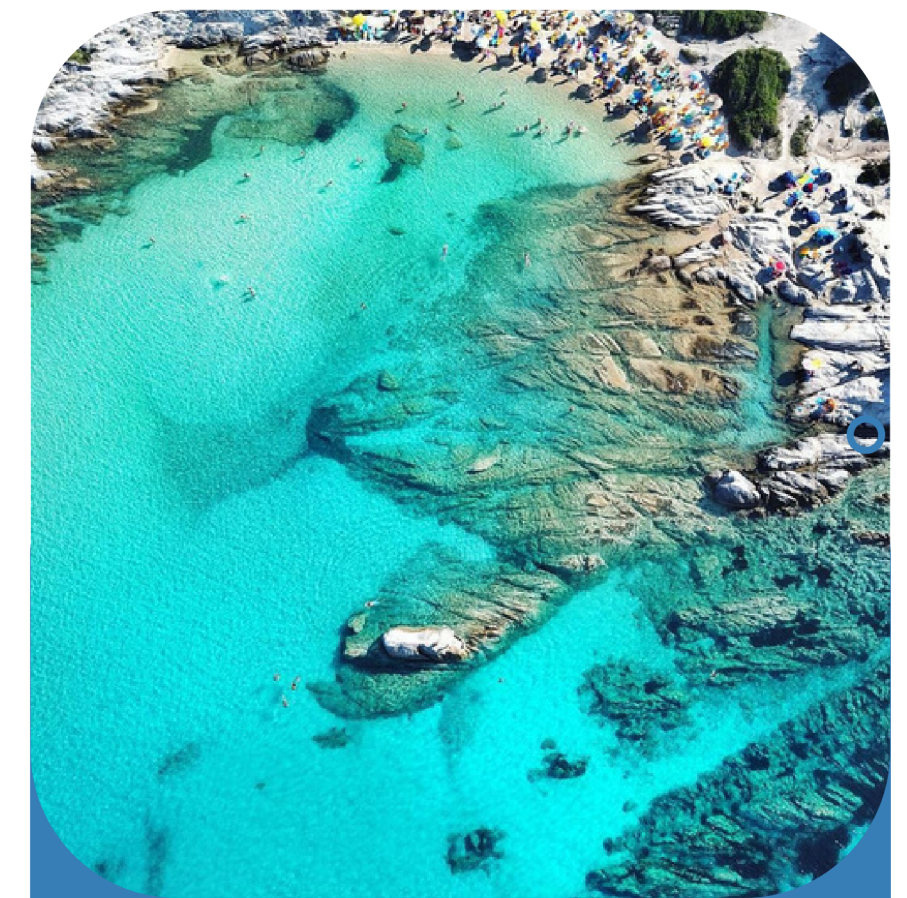

Samothrace – 35NM

The island deity embraced by nature.

Lemnos – 60NM

Untamed beauty in the North Aegean.

Chalkidiki – 55NM

An exotic dreamland on your doorstep.

Thassos

On Thassos, you will find yourself engulfed in a sea of green. Take the tree-lined roads from the beaches to the ravines, lakes and footpaths around the villages. Rewarding trails like Maries-Prinos, Panagia-Potamia-Ypsario, Kallirahi-Prinos or Hrisi Ammoudia-Limenas can be enjoyed on foot or by mountain bike. For lovers of outdoor sports, Thassos is an ideal summer destination for an adventure-filled holiday.

Samothrace

From the challenging mountain trails of Mount Saos or Fengari (the highest peak in the Aegean) to secret waterfalls and the living traditions of the Hora (the main town) ... the energy of this island will sweep you off your feet, sometimes quite literally when the wind picks up. And when this island-mountain of the Northern Aegean is bathed in moonlight, enigmatic ancient riddles will come alive before your eyes.

Lennos

Today, this very island retains its healing qualities in another sense. Though well off the beaten track, its friendly inhabitants, serene, open landscapes and golden sand dunes offer balm to body and soul. And as if these were not enough, there are unusual archaeological sites, romantic castles and scrumptious local products. Among them are the abundant, affordable fish and seafood dishes, wonderful wines, honey, cheese and pasta from the land that used to be one of the breadbaskets and vineyards of ancient Greece.

Chalkidiki

Turquoise water, dense pine forests, dreamy hotels, small coves with fish tavernas and cafes, beach bars, archaeological sites, traditional villages, and the famous Petralona Cave in Kassandra: a microcosm of miracles. Made to be explored with all your senses.

Why Our Company?

Why The Islands Of North Aegean?

Our company is the northernmost naval base for renting sailboats in Greece and the south-easternmost in Europe, before the Asian continent, reaching wonderful destinations within 60NM!

Perfect Sailing Conditions

The location of our company is considered one of the safest and quietest ports in Greece, protected from difficult weather conditions in summer, without large ships and intense mobility, but providing services similar to the cosmopolitan ports.

Experienced Skippers

The vision of the founders, is to embrace within our company both experienced and demanding sailors and people who want to get in touch with the magical world of sailing and cruising with a sailboat.

Thank You

