

FERRETTI 500 FLY

DDM29

Where luxury meets the sea

Elegant, sporty, and effortlessly refined, the Ferretti 500 is designed for unforgettable days on the Adriatic. With panoramic views, sophisticated interiors, and beautifully connected outdoor spaces, every moment on board feels relaxed, private, and indulgent.

Elevated living on the flybridge

The flybridge is designed for relaxed days and unforgettable evenings at sea. Spacious and elegantly arranged, it offers the perfect setting for sunset cocktails, open-air dining, or simply enjoying panoramic views. With comfortable lounge seating, a dining area, grill, refrigerator, and sunbeds, it becomes the perfect social space on board, ideal from morning coffee to evenings under the stars.

Bright, open, and connected to the sea

The salon combines contemporary Italian elegance with bright, open living spaces and panoramic sea views. Soft tones, refined finishes, and seamless connection to the cockpit create a relaxed and sophisticated atmosphere on board.

Your private retreat at sea

The master cabin is designed for comfort and relaxation, with elegant details, soft lighting, and plenty of space.

Large windows bring in natural light and sea views, creating a calm atmosphere to unwind after a day on the water. Quiet, private, and beautifully appointed, the master cabin offers a true boutique hotel experience at sea.

Elegant comfort for every guest

The VIP cabin continues the yacht's sophisticated design with a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Bright, comfortable, and thoughtfully designed, it provides guests with a relaxing private space to recharge and enjoy complete comfort on board. Soft textures, elegant details, and carefully designed lighting create a calm and inviting setting throughout the stay.

Simplicity, beautifully designed

The bathrooms are modern, elegant, and designed with comfort in mind. Featuring contemporary finishes, spacious showers, and refined details, they complete the onboard experience with a clean and luxurious atmosphere. Functional yet sophisticated, every detail is designed to make life on board feel effortless and relaxing.

Slow mornings by the sea

The aft cockpit is the perfect place to begin and end the day. Shaded, comfortable, and seamlessly connected to the salon, it creates a relaxed outdoor living space ideal for breakfast by the sea, afternoon drinks, or quiet evenings at anchor. With elegant seating and direct access to the hydraulic swimming platform, the cockpit offers a natural connection to the water and the relaxed rhythm of life on board.

Where your journey begins

Cruise the Adriatic from our home base at D-Marin Mandalina in Šibenik, perfectly positioned between Zadar and Split airports. An ideal starting point for discovering the Šibenik archipelago and Kornati Islands, then cruising south towards Vis, Hvar and Korčula, with countless hidden gems to explore along the Dalmatian coast.
