

An aerial photograph of a shipwreck in Greece. The ship is a large, dark-hulled vessel, possibly a cargo ship, lying on its side in the deep blue sea. The ship's structure is visible, including the hull, deck, and some internal compartments. The water is a deep blue, and the surrounding area is rocky. The text "REDISCOVER GREECE...with us" is overlaid on the image in a white serif font, with "REDISCOVER" in all caps and "GREECE...with us" in a mix of caps and lowercase. The word "with" is in a smaller, italicized font.

The name of our yacht AKTAIA, derives from the Greek mythology and holds a special significance. AKTAIA was one of the Nereids; one of the twelve sea nymph daughters of Nereus, often referred to as the "Old Man of the Sea," and the Oceanid Doris.

Her name means "dweller on coasts," reflecting her connection to the seashore!

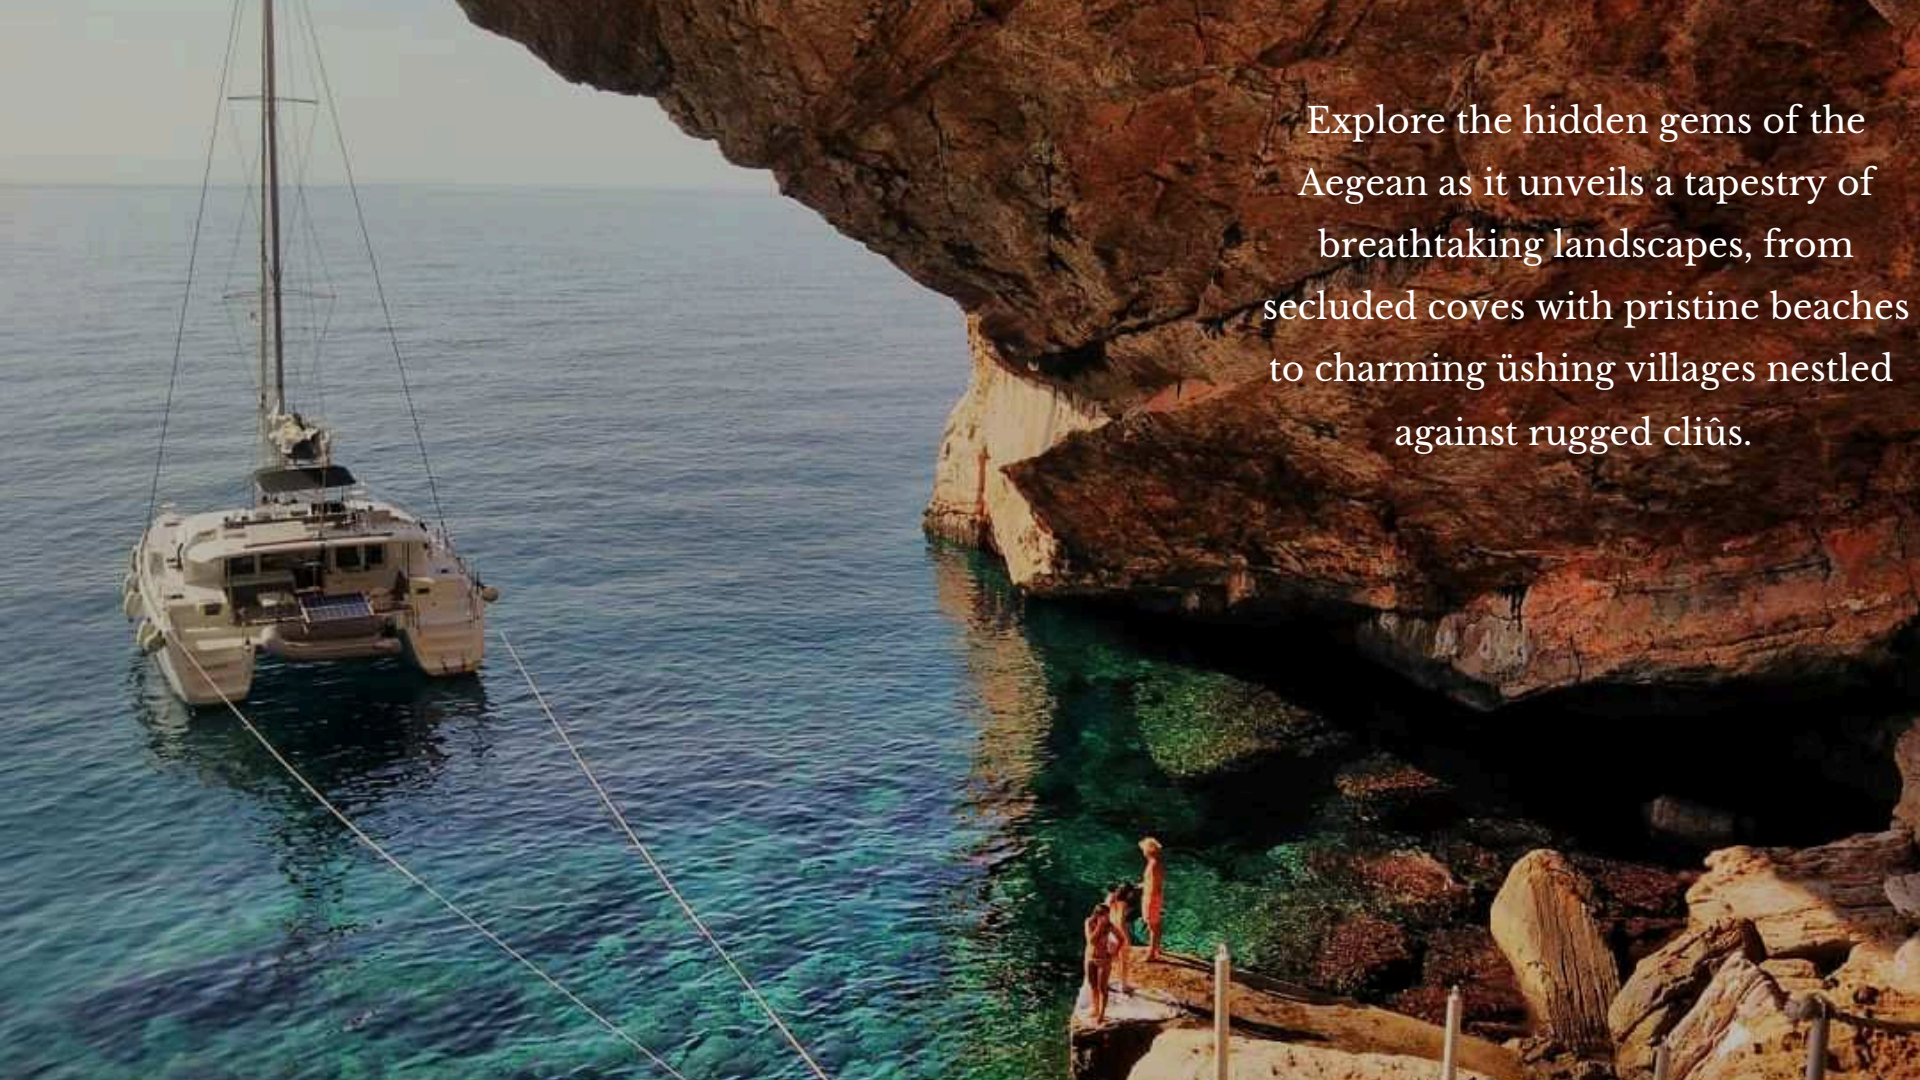

A man with a dark beard and curly hair, wearing a dark blue t-shirt, stands on a yacht deck. The background shows a blue sea, a distant coastline with buildings, and a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The lighting suggests late afternoon or early morning.

An aerial photograph of a coastal landscape. On the right, a sandy beach with sparse green vegetation meets a white, eroded cliff face. The cliff has several natural rock formations and arches. To the left of the cliff, the water is a vibrant turquoise color, revealing the rocky seabed. Several large, light-colored rock formations are scattered in the shallow water. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

A scenic view of a sailboat anchored in a cove. The boat is white with a dark cabin and is positioned on the left side of the frame. The water is a deep blue-green color. On the right side, a large, dark, craggy rock formation overhangs the water. In the foreground, on a rocky shore, three people are standing near a small wooden platform or dock. The overall atmosphere is serene and picturesque, typical of a hidden gem in the Aegean Sea.

An aerial photograph of a stunning coastal scene. On the left, a sandy beach curves along a small, sheltered bay. A small white building is perched on a rocky outcrop just above the water's edge. The water is a vibrant turquoise, revealing dark, rocky patches beneath the surface. A small boat is anchored in the deeper part of the bay, leaving a long, thin wake. The surrounding land is arid and rocky, with sparse vegetation. The overall atmosphere is serene and picturesque.

A wide-angle photograph of a sunset over a calm sea. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, partially obscured by dark, silhouetted mountains. The sky is a mix of deep blue and warm orange, with wispy clouds catching the low light. The water's surface is dark blue with gentle ripples, and a clear, shimmering reflection of the sun and sky stretches from the horizon towards the viewer. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.
