

CREW PROFILE

INSIEME PRINCESS 85 FLY

Captain STIPE PERAN

Nationality Croatian

After finishing College of Nautical studies and with a love for sea, exploration, and teamwork Stipe has made his first miles on the sea 10+ years ago. Through Fisherman's vessels, Merchant Navy, and Yachting Industry valuable experiences were gathered and now Stipe presents a blend of a fun, organization, and safety-focused Captain. Well-versed in managing the challenging environment, always delivering high standards and great knowledge of all hidden gems of the Adriatic and Montenegrin sea gives you a guarantee for a perfect vacation.

2

Chef DRAŽEN PUĐA

Nationality Bosnian

An enthusiastic and almost 20 years professional chef that will offer the guest an unforgettable journey on the plate. With lots of restaurant experience, Dražen decided to take one step forward- toward a yachting industry and he did not disappoint! Since 2018 he is preparing delicious menus onboard yachts and taking his position with pride and joy. Serving only the fresh and high-quality ingredients, carefully chosen from local markets, perfectly prepared, and served ensures that guests get the best possible experience. Always positive and smiling together with his culinary skills, Dražen is a person which you will always be happy to see!

Deckhand/engineer DOMAGOJ DŽANKO

Nationality Croatian

Domagoj is a very proactive and helpful person by his nature, active and calm at the same time! Experience, both, from the Merchant navy and the Yachting industry, makes him a valuable team member. With engineering as his profession and an active way of life as his selection, he provides perfect balance on board. When it comes to watersports, Domagoj is the first to ask for help and instruction - both you will get without a delay since watersports are his great passion and way of life!

3

Stewardess MATEA POLJSKI

Nationality Croatian

Matea has a very lively and active personality which is proved by her Master's degree in Physical education. During her study time, she also implemented her passion for swimming as a coach, both for small children and students. In 2018 she first time joins to an onboard hospitality position and decides that it is the way where she wants to develop her career. With her positive attitude, constant smile on her face and the burst of energy, Matea is always around to fulfill all of your demands.